ANAHEIM, CA (September 2026) – Harris Spice, a trusted leader in premium spices and seasonings, is proud to announce the return of its seasonal baking collection to Costco stores across Northern California. Launching this year under the vibrant new brand name Pep and Zip ™, the five-piece organic baking set returns for its second consecutive year following a successful debut.

Arriving in early October—just in time for autumn baking traditions and holiday gifting—the set will be available at select Northern California Costco locations for an exceptional value of $8.99, while supplies last.

Curated to inspire both passionate home bakers and holiday gift-givers, the Pep and Zip ™ Baking Set features five USDA Organic–certified essentials:

- Organic Cinnamon Sugar – A sweet, versatile pantry staple for cookies, morning pastries, and French toast.
- Organic Pumpkin Spice Seasoning – The quintessential autumn blend for pies, muffins, and seasonal warm beverages.
- Organic Ground Cloves – Bold and aromatic, ideal for holiday hams, gingerbread, and mulled cider.
- Organic Ground Ginger – Zesty and warm, a classic must-have for spiced cakes, gingersnaps, and savory glazes.
- Organic Ground Nutmeg – Rich and nutty, the ideal aromatic finish for custards, eggnog, and festive baked goods.

Beautifully packaged and ready to display or gift, the Pep and Zip ™ set offers convenience, purity, and flavor at an accessible price point. Whether families are gathering to bake holiday cookies, preparing pies for Thanksgiving, or looking for an affordable host gift, the collection provides the foundational spices of the season.
