FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cloverdale Foods Invites PLMA Attendees to Visit Booth #1335

MANDAN, N.D. – Cloverdale Foods announced its participation in the upcoming Private Label Manufacturers Association (PLMA) Trade Show and invites retailers, distributors, and industry professionals to visit Booth #1335 to explore premium private label bacon, meat snacks, and protein solutions.

At Booth #1335, attendees will have the opportunity to learn how Cloverdale helps partners build differentiated private label programs through premium quality, innovative product development, and flexible manufacturing capabilities.

Visitors can discuss:

- Private label bacon programs
- Hardwood-smoked bacon varieties and flavor profiles
- Premium and value-tier product offerings
- Custom product development opportunities
- Co-manufacturing solutions
- Meat snack capabilities

Cloverdale's expertise in authentic hardwood smoking and protein manufacturing enables retailers to deliver distinctive products that meet evolving consumer preferences while strengthening their store brand portfolios.

"Our team is excited to connect with current and prospective partners at PLMA," said Mimzi Foreman, Director of Retail Sales. "PLMA provides an excellent opportunity to showcase our commitment to quality, innovation, and collaborative private label solutions that help retailers succeed."

PLMA's annual trade show brings together retailers, wholesalers, and manufacturers from around the world to discover new products and develop strategic business partnerships within the growing private label marketplace. The event takes place in Chicago and is recognized as one of the industry's premier private label gatherings.
