Candia Nuts Brings Taste-First Mediterranean Snacking to PLMA Chicago 2026

Greek family-owned producer spotlights a crunchy, four-ingredient honey-and-nut bar concept for today's private-label shelves.

HERAKLION, CRETE, GREECE — November 6, 2026 — Candia Nuts S.A. will present its Mediterranean-inspired approach to everyday snacking at PLMA's 2026 Private Label Trade Show, "Store Brands Marketplace," held November 15–17 at the Donald E. Stephens Convention Center in Chicago. The company's honey-and-nut bar proposition is designed to give retail buyers a simple, distinctive alternative in a crowded snack-bar category.

The idea starts with a different question: "How do we make simple, real food convenient?" Instead of emphasizing protein claims or complicated formulations, the concept puts recognizable ingredients, visibly whole nuts and a satisfying crunch first.

With just four ingredients at the heart of the proposition, the bars highlight taste, texture and straightforward product presentation. Rooted in Greek family food traditions, the concept is intended for a wide range of moments—from coffee breaks and lunchboxes to travel, pantry snacking and an everyday treat.

For retailers, the proposition offers more than a new snack format: it combines clear ingredient communication, a distinctive crunchy eating experience and the character of a Greek family business. Candia Nuts produces both own-brand products and private-label projects, bringing established retail-partner experience to discussions in Chicago.

Retail buyers, importers and prospective partners are invited to contact Candia Nuts to discuss the concept and arrange a meeting during the PLMA show.
